

Interpreter Training Program (ITP) - 2011

March 11-12, 2011 - CAMP KALEO

The Georgia Baptist Conference of the Deaf ITP will offer one course for all interested interpreters and Deaf leaders at Camp Kaleo near Forsyth, Georgia, on Friday, March 11 and Saturday, March 12, 2011. The course will begin on Friday afternoon. All persons taking the ITP course are asked to arrive on Friday afternoon between 2:00-3:00 p.m. You will receive one (1) CEU for the full ten hours. The CEU will appear on your transcript through RID. Participants may obtain a certificate of completion of the course, for $7.00 per certificate. Please indicate your request on the registration Form. Note: Please be sure to bring your own linens, since Camp Kaleo does NOT provide them.

The course offered will be: Interpreting Tools: Simplifying the Rules.

Participants in this Workshop will have interaction among each other and with the Instructor's guide on activities to further their knowledge in linguistics of ASL and awareness in Deaf Culture.

"Interpreting Tools: Simplifying the Rules" will be taught by Amy Peterson.

Amy is currently the Communication Specialist at Bailey Deaf Unit at Greil Memorial Psychiatric Hospital in Montgomery, AL. She holds CDI and a provisional certification in ASLTA. She obtained her bachelor degree in Elementary Education with concentration in Deaf Education from Jacksonville State University. Currently, Amy is taking graduate classes to obtain a Masters in Education – Adult Learning. Amy is an Adjunct Instructor at Troy University for the Interpreter Training Program. She is teaching ASL and ASL Linguistics. She lives in Prattville, AL with her husband, Jimmy and 2 girls, Mary Ann and Elizabeth.

The class schedule is: Friday afternoon - 2:00-9:00 p.m. & Saturday - 7:30-4:00 p.m.

The North American Mission Board is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for Continuing Education Activities. This Professional program is offered for 1 CEU at the Intermediate Content Knowledge Level.
